

The Magnificent Seven

Back on the 26th European Short Film Festival in Brest

This short film program has been designed to allow the viewer to discover the variety of young European cinema through seven short shorts with varied aesthetic and thematic universe. It offers films that have particularly affected, ranging from fiction to genre cinema animation for a journey rich in color.

Curator

Massimo Nardulli

Programmer of Brest European Short Film Festival