

TIFF.TV COMPETITION

ENTRY RULES AND REGULATIONS

Submissions must conform to normal broadcast standards, so no foul language, graphic violence, nudity, or copyrighted materials is allowed.

Maximum length of submitted films will be 30 minutes.

We accept films produced during the last 5 years.

Submissions are accepted on an ongoing basis without deadline.

When applying to TIFF.TV Competition, the applicant has automatically accepted the rules and regulations and has given the TV program the rights to transmit the film during the duration of the program.

(The director/producer with the submission of the film affirms that he/she has all the copyrights of audio, video, images and music of the film and he remains legally responsible.)
