

Anna MARZIANO

Documentary | Italy, France, Germany | 2014 | 11'22''

Anna Marziano's Orizzonti Orizzonti! continues the filmmaker's interest in marginalized voices and the fragment as a form of meaningful exchange. Documenting encounters with Apulians as they confide intimate experiences, the film oscillates between black-and-white documentary neorealism and placid, Sugimoto-like seascapes.
