

DocuTIFF is excited to invite filmmakers to submit to the second edition of 2016 festival, which will take place in Tirana, this coming June 1–8, 2016 in the open air theatre of the University of Arts.

DocuTIFF aims to encouraging documentary film production in Albania and to give more chances to our filmmakers finding cooperation and enabling mutual contacts with their colleagues in our region, to build up a favorable climate creation in Albania and wider in region for development and cooperation of such productions.

This edition of DocuTIFF is organized by Tirana Film Institute under the auspices of the Ministry of Culture of Albania and with the support of the Albanian National Center of Cinematography.