

Mladen Vušurović was born in Cetinje, Montenegro, around the middle of the XX century, lives his life according to the challenges of modern civilization, has personal vision and stamina, dedication and hard work, rooted in family and nation, loves people more than animals, perceives his life as too short for each single goal he is to achieve.

For the last 9 years he has spent his time on his duties as being the Beldocs IDFF director www.beldocs.rs , as well distributor of documentary films for the West Balkans.